Ode to Nakago

Ode to Nakago

Ode to Nakago

Oh most odious of the seishi > may I begin to count the ways that I despise thee?
> Man with the symbol of heart upon his empty head > who has not one himself.
 How do I hate thee?
> Let me tell the ways:

Would I could lock you in a box > And pounce it thrice with five ton rocks and then, as if some magic trick > through it, countless rapiers stick but not illussion with fake steel > the points be sharp, the edges real; Then should you still remain alive > I'll find more ways, so hard I'll strive I'll tie you up against a pine > then make you hear Miaka's whine oh countless times until ears bleed, > and like a child shall you plead But then continue, so I shall > and let Nuriko slap you, pal and allow Tamahome to rack your "stones" > and give you to Ahitare, a good chew bone and let Tasuki fry you with his fan > and Chichiri hold the pan for Suboshi, yo-yos poised > accompanied by unholy noise of Amiboshi's flute and Yuui's bitching > until all that's left is a twitching pile of subhuman goo

> Then Nakago, then shall you understand what suffering each horrid scene > afflicts upon us when you're on screen And how you make us wish to retch > and for our eyes, sharp daggers fetch You slimy, perverted, little jerk > get thee into that box and begin to hurt!

End
file.
